Re: Request to Appear at the Hearing and Summary of Testimony of the Brazilian Corn Ethanol Association (União Nacional do Etanol de Milho) Regarding the Section 301 Investigation of Certain Acts, Policies, and Practices of Brazil (USTR-2025-0044)

Dear Chairs Grimball and Butler,

On behalf the Brazilian Corn Ethanol Association (União Nacional do Etanol de Milho) ("UNEM"), we request to appear at the Section 301 Committee's hearing, scheduled to begin on September 3, 2025, regarding the investigation of regarding certain acts, policies, and practices of Brazil.¹

UNEM is a national advocacy organization that represents the interests of the corn ethanol industry, a growing segment of Brazil's ethanol sector. Established in 2017, UNEM brings together 24 Brazilian companies and entities that work together to develop solutions to meet global demand for ethanol. The association represents 98% of the Brazilian corn ethanol production.

During our testimony, we intend to explain that Brazil and the United States are highly integrated, and ethanol production in Brazil generates substantial benefits for the U.S. economy. As the United States and Brazil are the largest ethanol producers in the world, U.S.-Brazil ethanol trade is minimal, and U.S. exports of ethanol to Brazil are driven by supply and conditions in Brazil, not Brazil's tariff policies. To sustain export demand for ethanol producers, the United States and Brazil should collaborate to expand emerging end-use markets and address third-country market access barriers.

¹ Initiation of Section 301 Investigation: Brazil's Acts, Policies, and Practices Related to Digital Trade and Electronic Payment Services; Unfair, Preferential Tariffs; Anti-Corruption Enforcement; Intellectual Property Protection; Ethanol Market Access; and Illegal Deforestation; Hearing; and Request for Public Comments, 90 Fed. Reg. 34,069 (USTR July 18, 2025); see also 19 U.S.C. § 2411.
